A very faint, grayscale background image of a classical building, possibly a library or a church, featuring four prominent columns supporting an entablature. The image is intentionally faded and serves as a subtle backdrop for the text.

All the valley, mother, 'ill be fresh and green and still,
And the cowslip and the crowfoot are over all the hill,
And the rivulet in the flowery dale 'ill merrily glance and play,
For I'm to be Queen o' the May, mother,
I'm to be Queen o' the May.

So you must wake and call me early, call me early, mother dear, To-morrow 'ill be the happiest time of all the glad New-year;
To-morrow 'ill be of all the year the maddest merriest day,
For I'm to be Queen o' the May, mother,
I'm to be Queen o' the May.
